SECTION A: MODULE 1

Answer ONE question only from this section.

Question 1

The extracts below relate to the early contact between West Africans and Europeans up to 1492 and to the Spanish settlements in the Americas up to 1600. Study them, then answer Questions (a) to (d) that follow.

Document I

...You should know that the said Lord Infante of Portugal [the crown prince, Henry the Navigator] has leased this island of Argin to Christians [for ten years], so that no one can enter the bay to trade with the Arabs save those who hold the license. These have dwellings on the island and factories where they buy and sell with the said Arabs who come to the coast to trade for merchandise of various kinds.

Document III

...Especially that leave be given to them to bring over heathen [bozales] negroes, of the kind of which we have already experienced. Wherefore here it is agreed that Your Highness should command us to grant licenses to send armed ships from this island to fetch them from Cape Verde Islands, or Guinea, or that it may be done by some other persons to bring them here...

SECTION B: MODULE 2

Answer ONE question only from this section.

Question 4

The extracts below relate to the measures used by enslaved peoples to overthrow the slave systems and the methods used by the planters to suppress resistance. Study them, then answer Questions (a) to (d) that follow.

Document I

From John Munro's wharf at this place... a Negro Sailor Man, of the Coromantee nation; he is about 5 feet 5 inches high, his face furrowed with the small pox marks, he has no brand marks... he had on when he went off an osnaburg frock...supposed to be lurking in or about Kingston; he is artful... of course it is thought that he may endeavour to pass for a free man...

Document II

I have tried several times to make Toussaint and all the generals surrender... But even though, Citizen Minister, I should succeed in making these men submit, I would not be able to adopt those rigorous measures which are needed to assure France the undisputed possession of San Domingo, until I have 25,000 Europeans present under arms...

SECTION C: MODULE 3

Answer ONE question only from this section.

Question 7

The extracts below relate to the Cuban Revolution, and its impact on Cuba and Cuba's international relations up to 1970. Study them, then answer Questions (a) to (d) that follow.

Document I

We defeated an army vastly superior in numbers through popular support, through correct tactics and through revolutionary morale. But now we must confront the reality that our army is not prepared for the new responsibilities it has acquired, such as defending Cuba's territory as a whole...

Document II

Many times in the past, Cuban people have risen to throw out tyrants who destroyed their liberty. And I have no doubt that most Cubans today look forward to the time when they will be truly free from foreign domination, free to choose their own leaders, free to select their own system, free to own their own land, free to speak and write and worship without fear or degradation...

Document III

It is necessary that we avoid the inception of a parasitic class living at the expense of productive work... if we fill buildings with employees we will be more expensive to the country than the old politicians were... We have accomplished nothing if we previously worked for the capitalist and now we work for another type of person who is not a capitalist, but who consumes much and produces nothing...
