Question 1

The extracts below relate to the French Revolution. Study them, then answer questions (a) to (c) that follow.

Document I

It is to law alone that men owe justice and liberty; it is that salutary organ of the will of all which re-establishes in Right the natural equality between men; it is that celestial voice which dictates to each citizen the precepts of public reason and teaches him to act according to the maxims of his own judgement and not to be in contradiction to himself...

*Jean-Jacques Rousseau, 1762, cited in F. G. Green, Jean-Jacques Rousseau: A Critical Study of His Life and Writings
London: Cambridge University Press, 1955, pp. 279-280.*

Document II

I shall prove that so many abuses, so visible to all eyes, and so justly censured, have only till now resisted a public opinion which condemns them, because nobody has attempted to [root out] their germ, and to dry up the source of all obstacles by establishing a more uniform order.

Calonne's Summary of a Plan for the Improvement of the Finances, 1786, cited in William Doyle, Origins of the French Revolution London: Oxford University Press, 1988, p. 52.

Document III

Article I. Immediately after the publication of the present decree, all the suspects in the republic who are still at liberty will be placed under arrest.

Article II. Suspects deemed to be: 1. those who whether by their conduct, their liaisons, speech or writings have shown themselves to be adherents of tyranny, federalism or enemies of liberty...
